Suggested inviting the current Grand Jury to join early in their term we their personal contact information will be available. Other counties have a closer relationship with their sitting Grand Juries. Lynn said that would be no conflict if they joined earlier and suggested a possible July or August get together.

Open Positions – Lynn B

Lynn F will help with lunch check-in and can help with the newsletter and reservations if needed. Later in the meeting Lynn F agreed to be the Parliamentarian.

Treasurer's Report – Ken

Ken sent out the November/December Treasurer's Report.

Net income in 2025 was $428

In the future, donations should be added to the budget (example: Orangewood Foundation).

Programs Report – Greg presented

Greg had contacted the Los Angeles Angels front office asking if they would speak at a lunch. Group discussion whether we should deviate from topics that we normally cover. An informal vote was that the focus should be on the county

Committee Reports

A. Recognition Committee – Terri

The committee will meet soon

B. Recruitment – Doug

97 applicants so far. Karen requested a digital copy of the recruitment flyer to share on social media.

Discussion

Everyone is OK in their current positions.

Look at the pro's and con's of joining the CGJA. Invite a CGJA member to speak at our next meeting via Zoom and discuss with Chris Pounds who is now a Trainer

Benefit

Expectations

Cost

By Laws changes

Request to have the Zoom hyperlink sent out the morning of the meeting.

New PO Box which is less expensive and more centrally located (Katella and Tustin).

New Business

Ken – The credit card machine is now outdated. A new machine would cost $200.

Group discussion ensued whether to offer the option of credit card payment. There is an ATM in the lobby at the Elks. It was decided to state on the lunch announcement that cash and checks only and see how it works.

Lynn – she and Chris attended Judge Carter's Pancake Breakfast

The meeting concluded at 2:03 PM
